

• Trends •

Pleats in skirts are making a comeback in women's clothing, magnified with embroidery. At the Dior show, the models walked the catwalk in graceful couture creations. The most striking trend is the Luxe Deluxe with a focus on pink and deep purple tones such as meta-mauve.

The collections of CND Shellac Gel Polish and Gelish Gellak also tie in seamlessly with this. We even see dark brown and this year too, red is an indispensable part of every collection.

• Winter (Spa) Pedicure •

Winter feet, or their appearance, require special attention. We therefore like to pamper our feet during and on the way to the cold days.

During our Winter Pedicure treatment, we apply a wonderfully nourishing mask that makes our dry skin happy. The mask is wrapped in a towel and left to absorb for ten minutes, but then the skin is optimally hydrated and we conclude the treatment with a delicious cream. Of course this can be combined with a color from one of the extensive collections. Come and have fun with your partner, colleague, friend or mother and enjoy our spa bench with natural stone bowls.

• CND Shellac vs Gelish •

"Timeless beauty of elements on earth" says CND Shellac about its autumn collection Dynamic Duality, the colours vary from warm orange, which fortunately shows itself again in abundance in this season's sweaters and jackets, to dark brown and winter blue.

This coming Christmas/winter, CND will be launching the Queen Tessential collection, inspired by the glamour of the holidays and the enchanting essence of nature. With, as Dior says, "the colour of life" Red. Dragon Slay is such a beautiful red, Battle Royal a deep purple and the Icy Shimmers in the colour Winter Warrior should not be missed.

Gelish is already there with the In Frame autumn collection with the ice blue I Was Framed and winter pink You Have my Art, now our favourite dark brown Artwork In Progress.

Fortunately, we only have one dilemma and that is which one do we choose first from all these beautiful colours?

• Biab Nails (CND Plexigel, The GelBottle) •

Everyone now knows the name Biab, but what exactly is it and how can we treat it? the possibilities are endless and the people who already have it on their nails are very enthusiastic, some don't want anything else!

It is a beautiful thin builder gel in a new guise with all kinds of new applications. Of course, this product can also be soaked off (soakable) and we like that, no damage to the natural nails and a beautiful natural look. You can strengthen your nails with it, although they can be lengthened briefly, but it is also intended to support the natural nail.

For really long nails there is hard gel, acrylic, polygel. The product adapts to the natural shape of the nail and can be combined with a beautiful color in CND Shellac or one of the gel color systems with a choice of more than 300 colors. Let us inform you about the possibilities in our salon.

Biab and Nail Art remains a strong combination, both The GelBottle (TGB) and CND PlexiGel continue to expand with fantastic colors and now there is even more choice for beautiful nudes such as Barre Beauty and cool pink shade, Cool Berry.

• Christmas •

This year too, many are looking forward to the holidays. Preferably in good company, a warm atmosphere, with good food, a beautifully decorated Christmas tree with gifts for our loved ones underneath. A period of mainly conviviality in a comfy outfit with a woolen sweater, matching painted nails and a good conversation with your best friends or family.

These are busy days, don't forget to book in time on your favorite day, make an appointment now!

We wish you A Merry Christmas and best wishes for a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year!
